Article 1219 of the New York State Vehicle and Traffic Law (VTL) prohibits the throwing or depositing of any substance that could injure a person, animal, or vehicle onto a public road. This includes:

snow, glass, nails, tacks, wire, cans, grass clippings, and leaves.

Article 1219 of New York State Vehicle and Traffic Law makes it illegal to plow, shovel, or blow snow into a street or highway. This law also covers other items likely to pose a hazard to motorists, including glass, nails, wire, cans, etc. Fines for a first offense include up to a $150 fine and/or 15 days in jail, plus applicable surcharges.
