Local Law No. 2 of the year 19 88 -

A local law providing that written notice of defective conditions of highways, sidewalks and other properties owned by the town or an improvement district therein

Be it enacted by the Town Board of the County

City x of Andover, Allegany County, New York as follows:
Town
Village

Written notice of defective conditions of highways, sidewalks and other properties owned by the town or an improvement district therein, and failure by the town to remedy the same within a reasonable time after notice, are prerequisites to a civil action for damages arising out of said defective conditions which provides: that no civil action may be maintained against the Town or any improvement district, or the Town Highway Superintendent, or any town official for any damages to property or persons resulting from defects, unsafe, dangerous or obstructed conditions upon public highways unless written notice was given to the Town Clerk or Town Highway Superintendent, and there was a failure or neglect within a reasonable time after the notice was given of such defect to remove or repair the defect, danger or obstruction; that similiar requirements of prior written notice must be given regarding any defects in sidewalks within the Town before a civil suit may be maintained because of defects in the sidewalks in the town; that the Town Highway Superintendent shall transmit all notices of any defects to the Town Clerk within three days after receipt of such notices and shall take corrective action regarding such defects as soon as practicable; that the Town Clerk shall keep an index of all written notices of defects and maintain said record for at least five years after receipt of the notice of defect; that nothing in the local law shall be deemed to repeal,
