The online transfer of $22,000 was not completed correctly. The account was charged $35. Jill had left messages while I was at work. I called her as soon as I left work to find out of this issue. I scanned the receipt that I printed to show I made the transfer, however once sent to Buffalo, they informed her/me by the appearance of the receipt, that I had missed the verification step of the transfer. Jill transferred the money while I was on the phone that day. Jill called Ron as well when she could not contact me.
